

Fruit and vegetable salad planner

We should all try to eat at least 5 portions of fruit and vegetables a day.

Draw some of the fruit and vegetables you could use in your salad.

Six large, empty circles are arranged in a staggered pattern on the page. The top row has two circles, the middle row has two circles, and the bottom row has two circles. These circles are intended for children to draw various fruits and vegetables that they could use in a salad.